

Canadian International Model United Nations
Summit of the G20
Resolution 2.1

Sponsors: Russian Federation, Argentina, India, United States of America
Signatories: Germany, South Africa, Japan, Italy, Indonesia

The Summit of the G20,

Reaffirming Resolution 1373 adopted by the Security Council on 28 September 2001,

Recognizing the menace of international terrorism poses to all countries as its manifestations continue to become more imprudent and inhuman,

Applauding the United Nations Security Council meeting on 1 September 2004 for demonstrating a high degree of determination of the global community to carry on a consistent struggle against terrorism,

Stressing that any act of terrorism constitutes a threat to international peace and security,

Endorsing the work of the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) in implementing and monitoring their 40 Recommendations and 8 Special Recommendations on terrorist financing,

Reaffirming the need to combat by all means, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, all threats to international peace and security caused by the financing of terrorist activities,

1. Requests that each member nation take immediate steps to ratify and fully implement the 1999 United Nations International Convention for the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism;
2. Suggests that the member nations implement the United Nations resolutions relating to the prevention and suppression of the financing of the terrorist acts, in particular the United Nations Security Council Resolution 1373;
3. Urges each member state to criminalize the financing of terrorism, terrorist acts, and terrorist organizations, entitling investigative jurisdiction under their criminal codes;
4. Demands that each nation freeze the assets of terrorist organizations, and their associates, in accordance with United Nations Resolutions;
5. Calls upon all nations to ensure that the competent authorities provide the widest possible range of international co-operation to their foreign counterparts;
6. Suggests that the financial institutions and private sector business' report promptly any terrorist acts, organizations, or suspicious activities to the authorities;

7. Calls upon each G20 member to assist any nation, who requests such assistance, in aiding investigations into terrorist activities and the local, regional, national, and international levels with clear, concise, and effective gateways to facilitate the prompt and constructive exchange of information;
8. Urges all nations to welcome aid offered by multi-lateral and regional organizations to provide technical assistance in eliminating terrorist financing;
9. Authorizes the expansion of the Counter-Terrorism Assistance Group (CTAG), as a common database containing the technical assistance program of G20 member nations, to coordinate and evaluate efforts made by encouraging states to adopt necessary legislation and coordinating efforts to share and exchange information on terrorist activities;
10. Calls for each G20 member nations to make funding available to support anti-terrorist efforts and bring technology and research up to modern standards and to facilitate transnational information sharing through a 5% increase in funding to the Counter Terrorism Assistance Group;
11. Directs that the advancements made to deter terrorist financing be immediately and permanently included into the agenda of the G20 Committee to ensure a comprehensive review process;
12. Invites G20 members to accept trainees from developing nations into national training programs which promote compliance with conventions and protocols dedicated to the suppression of terrorist financing;
13. Endorses that any individual or organization associated directly or indirectly in the recruitment, training or financing of terrorist activities be considered accessories to criminal offenses;
14. Recommends that the FATF and Bretton Woods Institutions work together to make assessments of country's efforts to combat terrorist financing and advise the G20 on any progress or lack thereof.