

Canadian International Model United Nations Conference
First Committee: Disarmament and International Security
Resolution 1.4

Having considered the 1987 International Conference on the Relationship between Disarmament and Development,

Affirming that a relationship exists between disarmament and development.

1. Acknowledges the importance of critical links that have been created between disarmament and development through disarmament for development programs;
2. Encourages a greater emphasis on existing UN disarmament for development programs;
3. Encourages member states to utilize disarmament for development programs in aid to developing regimes.
